

A DISCUSSION WITH NEW MEXICO LABOR LEADERS

UNION SOLIDARITY — PANEL —

When we unite, we win: the need for solidarity between all workers

THURS SEPT. 14 • 6:30PM
UNM SUB BALLROOM A

Just this year we have seen the ongoing historic strike of the Screen Actors Guild (SAG-AFTRA) and Writers Guild of America (WGA) of over 170,000 entertainment workers, and the major bargaining victory for 340,000 Teamsters at UPS.

Workers in our city are taking part in these struggles from the recent SAG-AFTRA, WGA and Teamsters pickets, to the Albuquerque Teachers Federation's fight to protect public education, to the struggle of healthcare workers at UNMH, to the new unionization of Starbucks workers and faculty and graduate workers at UNM.

Come learn from union leaders why every worker, with or without a union, should support the ongoing WGA/SAG-AFTRA strikes & continue to form, join & support unions.

Panelists include:

Kirk Ellis - Writers Guild of America • Ernesto Longa, President of the United Academics - UNM • Ellen Bernstein, President of the Albuquerque Teacher's Federation • Eleanor Chavez, NM State Representative, NUHHCE District 1199NM - Executive Director • Madz Dazzo, organizer with Starbucks Workers United - Rio Grande Store • Anna Rose, United Graduate Workers - UNM • Matt Farner, Apprenticeship Support Committee Chair of UA Local 412 Plumbers & Pipefitters
